

Science Crossword Puzzles

Life Science

Across

3. A thin layer covering the outside of cells (two words).
5. A kind of fungus.
6. A process in plants that uses carbon dioxide, water and sunlight to make sugar, oxygen and energy.

Down

1. The green coloring that plants use in photosynthesis.
2. A reaction in living things that turns sugar and oxygen into carbon dioxide, energy and water.
4. The movement of water from an area with lots of water into an area with less water.

